

MASTER OF DIVINITY

with a concentration in Youth Ministry

The Master of Divinity is an academic professional degree which prepares students for a variety of ministries. Students may take three years or more to complete this course of study. The Youth Ministry concentration equips a student to serve a local congregation as a pastoral associate who focuses on the needs of youth and their families. This concentration requires coursework in program and curricular design for youth, pastoral ministry to youth and their families, methods of teaching youth, and the role of a pastoral associate.

Students must complete the following 81 hours (27 courses) to earn a Master of Divinity with a Youth Ministry concentration:
